

Ms Fiona Green

(Member)

Appointed as a Member of ESTA in July 2018, Fiona Green has held senior roles in health, telecommunications, government, finance, transport and insurance industries with a focus on technology delivery and digital transformation. Ms Green currently serves as a Board Committee Member of the Cancer Council of Victoria and provides consulting services to employers focused on business and technology solutions including Fitted for Work and Ailo Pty Ltd. She has previously held roles including Head of Delivery for DXC Technology (Hewlett Packard and Computer Science Corporation merger) and, Director of Business and Process Improvement and Director of Professional Services at Telstra where she established Telstra's Professional Services (technology delivery) business, supporting Telstra's Enterprise and Government customer base. Ms Green is a member of ESTA's Information and Communications Technology Committee.